SOUTHERN PACIFIC CONTRACTORS ARRIVE

Shipment of Mules and Scrapers Are Expected to Arrive Tonight.

DOUGLAS, April 26.—(Special).—W. J. Burton, W. M. McKee, Edward Fancher and C. H. Recksecker arrived in town this morning accompanied by twelve other men in the employ of Grant Brothers, railroad contractors, with headquarters in Los Angeles.

Mr. Burton, who is in charge, stated to a representative of the International-American that they had been working on the Arizona-California railroad out of Phoenix and had received orders to take part of their outfit and go to Nacozari to push the work there. They have seven carloads of their outfit on the way which are expected in tonight or tomorrow. Five of them are loaded with graders, scrapers, etc., and two of them with mules. There will be a large amount more of the firm's outfit pass through here shortly. Grant Brothers have the contract from the Southern Pacific for building the line from Nacozari to Guaymas. They now have over 3000 mules on different parts of the work and a large force of men and expect to put close to 2000 men at work in the course of a few weeks.

James A. Cashion, of Los Angeles, one of the head men of the company, is expected to arrive here tomorrow to take charge of the work and get things under way on a large scale.

Charlie Bozard, Bisbee's favorite tenor, sings Mariuccia at The Iris two days more only.
